David and Victoria Beckham can shift their finely toned asses, because there's a new power couple in town - Gemma and Ramil!

My new man made his debut on the show last week and I'm smitten. We met a couple of weeks ago in my local pub, The King Will, and have so much in common - he's even a car dealer, which is what I used to do before TOWIE. We're taking things slowly, but he's told me I'm The One. How exciting!

Last week I also confessed that Arg asked me for oral sex and said he would date me if I lost 4st! He propositioned me at Mick Norcross' party, but I wasn't tempted. He phoned me later to apologise and I still love him to bits.

Arg also found out his ex, Lydia Bright, has been texting Tom Kilbey in secret and was so upset. I told him he has to let Lydia move on. I need to find a nice girl to distract him!

Lauren Goodger rocked up to the Men In Black 3 premiere last week looking fantastic. She's obviously been working hard to stick to the low-carb Cambridge Diet and it's paying off. Check out those slim legs! She's due to come back to TOWIE again when we start filming the new season.

WEIGHT WATCHING

Last week Jessica Wright and I tried a "milkshake diet" - drinking four protein shakes a day and having a healthy dinner - but we only lasted two days! I want to lose 7lbs before I go on holiday to Turkey in July, so I'm going to the No1 Boot Camp in Ibiza for six days. For a chance to win a week there, see p10!

TOWIE CRYSTAL BALL...

Lauren Pope ended up snogging TOWIE newcomer Tom Pearce on their first date last week, and I think they're a match made in heaven. Lauren was heartbroken after breaking up with Kirk Norcross last summer, so I'm thrilled she's found romance again.

HUNT FOR A HUNK...

I watched Jason Donovan being interviewed by Piers Morgan on TV recently and I thought he was adorable. I've now asked Ramil to serenade me with his '80s No1 Especially For You. I was obsessed with Kylie and Jason growing up - they're legends!

THIS WEEK I... HAD MY HAIR EXTENSIONS PUT BACK IN by Total Essex. I had my hair cut shorter last month, but now I feel so much sexier with my long, blonde locks back. And just in time - I have to look as glam as possible because there's new a man in my life!
